MEXICO CITY QUIET AFTER RIOTING.

Seven Dead and 36 Injured in Outbreak Yesterday.

Trouble Due to Non-Withdrawal of Diaz and Corral.

MEXICO CITY, May 25.—After the intense excitement of last night, the city is in comparative quiet this morning. An official statement of the casualties resulting from the bloody rioting which swept over the city during the evening places the dead at seven and the wounded at 36. Several of the wounded are expected to die. Large forces of police were on duty early today, ready to cope with any renewal of the outbreak, but there were no signs of renewed disorder during the early hours.

Foreign Minister De la Barra issued an official statement this morning that President Diaz and Vice President Corral would resign this afternoon, and the provisional government would thereupon assume authority.

Many broken windows testified today to the work of the mob. Among the plate glass fronts shattered were those of the W. G. Walsh shop, the Azire Land Curio shop and the Tampico News Company, all belonging to Americans.

Reports received today from outlying quarters show that five persons were killed at Guadalajara Tuesday night, Governor Gallardo of the state of Jalisco, of which Guadalajara is the capital, has resigned and has been succeeded by David Gutierrez Allende. A mob demonstration occurred at Guadalajara last night, with cries for vengeance for the five persons killed Tuesday. The outbreak was quieted when Governor Gallardo resigned. The danger of the situation at that point is not considered over. Throughout last night there were echoes of the bloody struggle which occurred here earlier in the evening, when the mob had held sway at many points, storming buildings and menacing the presidential palace until swept back by volleys from the government forces. Last night's rioting covered a wide area and at times four different demonstrations were in progress, all apparently having a common object.

The main trouble culminated after dark last night, when word spread through the city that President Diaz and Vice President Corral had not resigned, in accordance with public expectation. Late in the day the Chamber of Deputies was the first scene of clamorous manifestations, and this soon spread to the neighboring quarters. Toward 9 o'clock the rioting was at its height. Shouts for Madero were heard everywhere, and processions moved through the leading streets bearing huge portraits of the revolutionary leader. Efforts to check the fury of the outbreak were made by Madero's personal representative, Alfredo Robles Dominguez, but the disorder continued, finding its chief centre in front of the presidential palace. Arming themselves with rocks the mob bombarded near-by buildings including the newspaper office of El Imparcial and the Tampico News Company.

Large forces of troops were hurried to the scene of disturbance and a cordon was thrown about the presidential palace. Twice orders to disperse were given to the manifestants, but without avail. Thereupon the soldiers opened fire. Immediately there was a scene of wild confusion. The more timid rioters fled to near-by streets and alleys, while the leaders gave ground slowly before the advancing forces, who still kept up their fire. Slowly, however, the mob was broken up, forming detached bodies, which continued their demonstrations at various points throughout the city. The estimate of dead last night was from seven to 18, but today's official report gives the casualties as seven dead and 36 wounded.

In the midst of it all, President Diaz lay on a sick bed. He declined to see any visitors, including members of the diplomatic corps, and took nothing but liquid nourishment.

Almost at the moment of the beginning of the demonstration Ambassador Wilson entered the palace to pay his respects to the president. He chatted for some time with Senora Diaz, who expressed her regrets that the president, was too ill to receive any visitors. When the ambassador emerged, he found troops lined up in front of the palace and mounted police at both ends of the block. The ambassador's motor car moved with difficulty. During its passage, at different times, grimy hands were thrust inside and the diplomat was saluted with "Viva El Embajador" (Long live the ambassador).

ONE MAN KILLED.

Mobs Parading Streets of Mexico City, Yelling "Viva Madero."

MEXICO CITY, May 25.—The police this afternoon fired on a crowd in front of the department of foreign relations. One man was killed. A manifesto issued by Robles Dominguez, appealing for order, was almost totally disregarded. Mobs are still parading the streets, yelling "Viva Madero."

A RESUMPTION OF HOSTILITIES.

Madero Orders Insurrectos in Coahuila to March on Saltillo.

JUAREZ, Mexico, May 25.—A resumption of hostilities in the state of Coahuila was ordered today. Francisco I. Madero, Jr., gave instructions for the insurrecto forces in that state to advance on Saltillo, the capital, a city of 24,0000 population, with a view of taking it from the federals and forcibly establishing the provisional government there.

GOMEZ TO ASSURE PEOPLE.

To Go to Mexico City to Announce That Peace Has Been Signed.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 25.—Dr. Vasquez Gomez, diplomatic head of the revolutionists in Mexico, last night received urgent messages to come at once to Mexico City and assure the people that peace has been signed. Dr. Gomez will leave San Antonio Friday morning. His advices are that the people, hearing of fighting south of San Luis Potosi will not believe peace has been declared, thinking the government is deceiving them.

BRANDS DECISION AS MISCHIEVOUS.

Will Injure Business and Invite Wide Litigation.

Justice Harlan Files Formal Dissent in Standard Oil Case.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Associate Justice John Marshall Harlan today filed in the Supreme Court his formal dissenting opinion in the Standard Oil case. Not satisfied with his oral dissent from the court's decision as handed down by Chief Justice White, Justice Harlan wrote the stenographic report of his remarks from the bench. The oral dissent formed merely a framework for the final document, containing about 8,000 words, put on record today.

Justice Harlan brands as mischievous the modification made by the court in the decree of the lower court permitting subsidiary corporations of the Standard Oil, after dissolution of the combination, to make "normal and lawful agreement" among themselves. Chief Justice White had characterized this modification as a "minor matter." Justice Harlan adds that he is convinced that the court's opinion "will throw the business of the country into confusion and invite widely extended and harrassing litigation, the injurious effects of which will be felt for many years to come."

After quoting from the chief justice's opinion he says: "The subsidiary companies are thus in effect informed—unwisely, I think—that although the New Jersey corporation, being an illegal combination, must go out of existence, they may join in an agreement to restrain commerce among the states if such restraint be not 'undue.'"

As in his oral remarks, Justice Harlan criticises the court for holding that not every restrain of trade violates the law. He reiterates that the court reversed its former rulings in the trans-Missouri freight and joint traffic association cases.

"On reading the opinion just delivered," he adds, "the first inquiry will be, that as the court is unanimous in holding the particular things done by the Standard Oil Company and its subsidiary companies in this case were illegal under the anti-trust act, whether those things were reasonable or unreasonable restraint of interstate commerce, why was it necessary to make an elaborate argument as is done in the opinion to show that according to the 'rule of reason' the act passed by Congress should be interpreted as if it contained the word 'unreasonable' or the word 'undue.'

"The only answer which in frankness can be given to this question is that the court intends to decide that its deliberate judgment 15 years ago, to the effect that the act permitted no restraint whatever of interstate commerce, whether reasonable or unreasonable was not in accordance with the 'rule of reason.' In effect the court says that it will not for the first time bring the discussion under the 'light of reason' and apply the 'rule of reason' to the questions to be decided. I have the authority of this court for saying that such a course of proceeding on its part would be judicial legislation.'

"The supreme law of the land," he concluded, "which is binding alike upon all—upon Presidents, Congresses, the courts and the people—gives to Congress and to Congress alone authority to regulate interstate commerce, and when congress forbids any restraint of such commerce in any form all must obey its mandate. To overreach the action of Congress merely by judicial construction—that is, by indirection—is a blow at the integrity of our governmental system and in the end will prove most dangerous to all."

REGARDING RECIPROCITY FIGHT.

Two New York Attorneys Ordered Before Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Allan and Graham, the New York attorneys who, it is said have acted for the National Grange in opposition to the Canadian reciprocity agreement will be summoned by the Senate finance committee to appear before the committee next Monday. This decision was reached by the committee today on motion of Senator Stone, who had previously stated a desire to find out "just who" was behind the fight on reciprocity.

DIVERS EXAMINE THE IVERNIA.

Much of Vessel's Plating Opened and Water in Four Compartments.

QUEENSTOWN, May 25.—Divers today examined Cunard liner Ivernia, which was beached off White Gate yesterday, after having struck Daunt Rock, while bound here from Boston with 728 passengers. It was found that ten feet of the vessel's plating had been opened abaft of the collision bulkhead. At high water the main deck was submerged. Four compartments are filled with water and all of the others, except one, are partly flooded.

SUES HIS SUCCESSOR.

Tax Collector Barber of Warwick Enters Case Against Town Treasurer.

WARWICK, May 25.—Herbert W. Barber, tax collector, brought suit in the superior court today against D. R. Adams, his successor as town treasurer, for $12,000 which he claims is due him for collecting taxes. Barber formerly held both offices. The town council voted to give him a salary of $800 as tax collector and this amount was cut to $600, which he refused, and after collecting the taxes as demanded $12,000 or 5 per cent of the amount collected, which is allowed by law in case no salary is agreed upon. The supreme court, however, ruled that Barber, as tax collector, could not sue himself as to town treasurer. Barber then resigned the latter office and his successor, having qualified, has brought suit against him.

MISFORTUNE MEETS THREE AVIATORS.

All Attempt To Continue Flight Toward Madrid.

Most Difficult Stage of Race from Paris to be Covered.

MADRID, May 25.—Misfortune met all the three aviators on the flight to the Spanish capital from San Sebastian, which is the most difficult stage of the Paris-to-Madrid race. All, however, are reported this afternoon to be heroically trying to continue the flight toward this city.

Gilbert, who left San Sebastian at 5:28 o'clock this morning, passed over Tolosa and then over Vitoria, but when all but 18 miles from Vitoria it is reported that he was attacked by an eagle and was forced to defend himself by shooting at the bird with his revolver. Gilbert landed abruptly at Olazagutal, about 40 miles from San Sebastian but was not hurt. He awaited the arrival of his mechanician to repair his aeroplane.

Vedrine, who started from San Sebastian at 7:17 o'clock, after passing Bribiesca, 100 miles from San Sebastian, landed at Quintanapalla, about 140 miles north of Madrid. On landing Vedrine met with a slight accident and hurried to Burgos, three miles away, to seek help in repairing his machine. Garros was not so fortunate as his comrades. When seven miles outside of San Sebastian, which city he left at 7:12 a. m., his motor failed and he was forced to descend in a field at Usurbil.

Garros returned to San Sebastian, intending to mount another machine and resume his flight. On being informed that he would be disqualified if he used a new machine, he returned to Usurbil by automobile at a terrific speed. He was accompanied by Alfred Le Blanc and they made a determined effort to repair the damaged motor.

King Alfonso and other members of the Royal family took luncheon at the Aerodrome here, while awaiting the arrival of the birdmen on the final stage of the big race. The distance from San Sebastian to Madrid is 428 kilometres (about 266 miles).

PARDONS DENIED.

President Taft Declines to Free Bankers Walsh and Morse.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—President Taft, in denying tonight the petitions for the pardon of Charles W. Morse of New York and John R. Walsh of Chicago, the most prominent bankers ever sent to a federal prison under the national banking laws, took the stand that the statutes must be upheld when they affect the rich man even more than when they affect the poor man.

The President not only refused to set the two convicts free, but also declined to exercise any other executive clemency or to shorten the sentences imposed.

The record in the Walsh case, the President said in a long opinion, "shows moral turpitude of that insidious and dangerous kind, to punish which the national banking laws were especially enacted."

In considering the case of Morse the President said "that from a consideration of the facts in each case I have no doubt that Morse should have received a heavier sentence than Walsh. Indeed, the methods taken by Morse tend to show that more keenly than Walsh did he realize the evil of what he was doing."

In his opinion in the Walsh case the President protested against the failure to discriminate between legitimate business and improper gain.

The President's denial of the applications of Morse and Walsh for pardon does not mean that they must stay in prison until the end of their terms.

Walsh began a sentence of five years in the Leavenworth penitentiary in January, 1910, and under the federal parole law is eligible for parole next September. The President's action tonight has no bearing whatever upon future application for parole.

Morse began his 15-year term in the Atlanta penitentiary in January, 1910, also. In denying his application the President granted him leave to renew it after January 1, 1913. Under the parole law, Morse will be eligible for release in 1915.

Both Morse and Walsh made strong efforts to have the President exercise clemency. The chief executive was besieged by friends and attorneys of both men. Mrs. Morse got up a monster petition, which was signed by scores of members of Congress and other prominent persons, and ex-Senator Hale of Maine did much in her behalf. The plea of ill-health and re-imbursement of all depositors in the Morse and Walsh banks were made in both cases.

Both applications were scanned closely at the Department of Justice by Attorney General Wickersham and his assistants and both were read with care by the President himself. His action was in accordance with the recommendation of Mr. Wickersham.

O'REILLY FACES JAIL TERM.

Harry K. Thaw's Lawyer Convicted of Receiving Stolen Goods.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Daniel J. O'Reilly, former assistant district attorney and well known as a criminal lawyer, particularly in the cases of Harry K. Thaw and Nan Patterson, was found guilty of receiving stolen goods by a jury in the criminal branch of the supreme court today. The jury reached a verdict in an hour and a quarter. O'Reilly was remanded for sentence.

He was charged with having negotiated for Frank L. Phiss the return of $87,000 worth of securities stolen March 2 from Aaron Bancroft, an elderly broker. A reward of $5,000 was paid for the return of the securities and the district attorney's office introduced evidence during the two weeks' trial to show that O'Reilly received $833 as his share of the reward. This he denied maintaining that he was acting as Bancroft's lawyer and in the interests of justice.

The maximum penalty for the offence is five years imprisonment and $250 fine.

OIL TRUST GAINS.

Obtains Long Delay in Prosecution for Alleged Rebating.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 24.—The main case of the government against the Standard Oil Company on an indictment charging the acceptance of rebates will not be placed on trial before fall if then. Following the close of the government's argument on the question in issue, under the "special plea in bar," Judge Hazel today adjourned the present term of the United States court and announced that he would take the question under advisement and hand down a decision during the summer. Whatever that decision may be, an appeal to the United States Supreme Court either by the government or the defendant is probable, so that the trial of the main issue may be postponed indefinitely.

SERIOUS RUPTURE IN PORTUGAL.

Bishops Protest Against Separation Law and Attack Government.

LISBON, May 24.—The long-looked-for rupture by the church and government is now an accomplished fact, owing to the protest issued yesterday by the bishops against the separation law. The violence of this protest has caused a sensation. It vigorously attacks the provisional government, and declares that the law is not one of separation, but of annexation of the church. After being despoiled of all property and authority, the bishops declare, the church has been placed in an abject position under the heel of the government. The protest is signed by the Patriarch of Lisbon, three archbishops and seven bishops.

That the situation in Portugal is serious is evidenced by the fact that the government is hastily dispatching reinforcements to the north. The official explanation of this is that the government is aware that monarchist plotters, with 2,000 mercenaries, are on the Spanish frontier and intend to cross to Portugal at the first opportunity, in the hope that the inhabitants of the border villages will support their cause. But the government, it is said, does not look for a revolutionary movement. It believes that the disturbances will not go beyond rioting. Nevertheless, all military precautions are being taken.

OFFICER SLIGHTLY INJURED.

Military Captive Balloon Breaks Loose from Anchorage.

INGOLSTADT, Bavaria, May 24.—An officer of the garrison here had a thrilling ride today, when a military captive balloon broke loose from its anchorage. The officer was a novice at ballooning and was unable to manipulate the gas valve. Finally, when the balloon had reached a height of 16,500 feet the officer clambered to the top of the gas bag and succeeded in wrenching open the valve. Then the balloon began a headlong descent near Munich, which is 60 miles distant from here. As the balloon was nearing the ground, its occupant jumped into a tree and was only slightly injured. Relieved of the man's weight, the balloon again descended and was later found near Innsbruck, Austria.

HAYTI BUYS CRUISER.

Vessel's Arrival at Canary Islands Arouses Inhabitants' Curiosity.

LONDON, May 24.—It transpires that cruiser Gross Luca, formerly Italian cruiser Umbria, whose arrival at Las Palmas, Canary Islands, yesterday aroused the curiosity of the inhabitants there, has been purchased by the Haytien government. The vessel carries 16 guns, is fitted out with modern armament and has a cargo of ammunition. She left Spezia May 6 in charge of a German crew.

SURPASSES BRITISH NEPTUNE.

United States Battleship Delaware Will be Most Powerful War Vessel at the Coronation.

United States battleship Delaware will be the most powerful war vessel at the coronation naval review, surpassing Great Britain's show ship, the Neptune. The Delaware was completed in November, 1909, just one month after the Neptune. They are of very nearly the same size, the American being of 20,300 tons displacement, as compared to 20,600 tons for the British vessel. The Neptune is 540 feet long at the water line and has an 86-foot beam. The Delaware is 30 feet shorter at the water line and her beam is 85½ feet.

Each vessel has an estimated horse power of 25,000, a speed of 21 knots and both will burn oil fuel. The Neptune has 12-inch Krupp armor and the Delaware 11 inch. The upper deck of the Neptune is armored against gem craft. Each craft carries ten 12-inch guns, but the Delaware's are so placed as to command a wider range. The Neptune has 20 4-inch guns and three submerged 21-inch torpedo tubes.

The Delaware carried 14 5-inch rapid fire guns, four 3-pounders, four 1-pounder, two 30-calibre machine guns, two 3-inch field guns and two submerged 21-inch torpedo tubes. She has especially large boilers, the grates being about 100 square feet in area. She cost without armament $3,843,404.

BATTLE TO BE DEPICTED.

Canada Will Include Scene in Pageant at Coronation, Which Had Been Withdrawn.

The Canadian pageant committee has arranged to include in the festival of the empire the scene depicting the battle of Chateauguay, the withdrawal of which has been much resented by Canadians.

It was announced in April that the Canadian committee, of which Lord Strathcona is president, had decided to omit from the coronation program Canada's principal contribution to the pageant. This piece, which had been in course of preparation at the Crystal Palace was entitled: "Chateauguay, Where Canada Was Held for the Empire," and was intended to represent the defeat, through strategy, of an invading American force in 1830 by a handful of Canadians. It was thought that the pageant might wound the susceptibilities of American visitors and that it might cause a feeling that would endanger the conclusion of the proposed Anglo-American arbitration treaty.

Opposition to the withdrawal of the scene was strong in Canada and the matter was made the subject of discussion in the Dominion House of Parliament.

FOURTEEN RUNS IN ONE INNING.

Remarkable Record Made by Rogers Against Durfee Textile of Fall River.

St. George's Beats Brown Freshmen and St. Joseph's Wins from Thayer.

The Civic League lot was the scene, Wednesday afternoon, of a somewhat peculiar and rather remarkable base ball contest between the Durfee Textile School of Fall River and the Rogers High School of this city. Rogers won, 17-16. Up to the seventh inning the game was interesting, Durfee Textile held a lead of 7-2, but in the seventh Rogers made a great rally and secured an overwhelming lead of 10 runs. In the ninth Durfee Textile also made a rally and tallied eight times before the side was retired.

These two innings were not the fault of the pitchers. It had rained just enough during the game to make the ball thoroughly soaked, and it was almost an impossibility for the pitcher to put the ball over the plate. The visitors came near tying the score in the ninth, when with the bases full Barlow drove out a two-base hit, but Umpire Walker declared the ball a foul and Sayer struck out Barlow.

Both teams played a rather shiftless game. In the first place, the weather conditions were wretched; in the second place, neither side showed much life or seemed to care how the game resulted. The visitors hit Oxx pretty freely during the first six innings, and though Rogers made five hits, they were not bunched and were not productive of runs.

The visitors scored in the first inning. The first man walked and was sent around by two infield grounders. Rogers retaliated with two runs. Jemail walked and stole second. Baker hit a grounder to pitcher, who threw wild to third, allowing Jemail to tally. The next two batters hit safely, scoring Baker. This was all for Rogers until the seventh inning.

Durfee Textile counted twice in the third, on three hits and a base on balls, and made another run in the fifth. Donovan reached base on an error by Underwood and scored on Torphy's single to left field. In the sixth two hits and two bases on balls off Oxx netted three more runs.

In the seventh came the Rogers rally. Urged on by the yells of the crowd, the home team pounded out eight hits in this inning. Hinchy, the opposing pitcher, became wild and wholly ineffective. Donovan was substituted but was no better, and was finally relieved by Torphy, who retired the side after Rogers had made 14 runs. Rogers scored once more in the last of the eighth, a man being forced in by a base on balls.

In the ninth five bases on balls and three hits gave the visitors eight runs and brought them within two points of Rogers. The ball was so slippery that it was impossible to try any curves, and the pitchers were content if they put a straight ball over the plate. The line-up and summary:

Dyke also did well for the collegians until the eighth, when St. George's made five hits. Towhill relieved him. Dyke struck out 12. Bush and Hoskier and the best batting for the school team, each making a single and a two-base hit. The fielding was excellent, St. George's making only one and the Brown Freshmen two errors. The gathering was enthusiastic and it was announced that the membership was already 92. Plans for a season of unusual interest were formulated. The yachtsmen selected as the official seal of the club a circular disc with the words "Westerly Yacht Club, Westerly, R. I." engraved upon it in the form of an anchor.

The clubs officers are as follows: Commodore, Herman Dyck; vice commodore, Albert H. Spencer, Jr.; rear commodore, Joseph H. Whipple; board of governors (three years) J. T. Maurau and B. N. Hinman; (two years) Arthur Perry and William Clark; (one year) J. Fred Barber and James M. Pendleton.

PERSONALS.

....Andrew Carnegie sailed Wednesday, with Mrs. Carnegie and their daughter, on the Oceanic, to spend the summer at Skibo Castle, Scotland.

....Jewish charities will benefit to the extent of $2,000,000 by the will of Charles Wertheimer, a well known collector of pictures and objects of art, who died in London April 25 last, leaving an estate worth $3,640,000.

....The American Bible Society has appointed Rev. S. A. Beck of University Place, Nebraska, to take charge of its Korean agency during the absence of Rev. D. A. Bunker from the field. Mr. Beck was born in Illinois in 1865, went out to Korea from Gordon, Nebraska, as manager of the Methodist Publishing House. He is a member of the Korean Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he was secretary six years; was treasurer of the Young Men's Christian Association of Korea three years, and a member of the executive committee of the Korean Religious Tract Society and of the permanent executive Bible committee. The Old Testament in Korean has just been completed, thus making the whole Bible available for the people of Korea for the first time in their history.

....In the will of Edward E. Hathaway, treasurer of the Citizens' Savings Bank of Fall River, many bequests are made to various institutions in that city, with the request that the sums be held in trust and designated in memory of relatives of the testator. No estimate of the estate is given, as no inventory has been filed. To the Home for Aged the sum of $5,000 is bequeathed. Also a like amount to the Union Hospital and the Women's Union, each of these bequests to be held as permanent funds and designated the Ella Coggeshall Hathaway funds, in memory of the testator's wife, and the income and profits therefrom to be used for the general requirements of the various institutions. The sum of $5,000 is bequeathed to the Children's Home, the principal to be held as a permanent fund designated the Mary Hathaway fund, in memory of the testator's daughter, who died in early girlhood. The income and profits therefrom are to be used toward the general requirements of the institution. Other bequests are made, which include $500 to Rebecca H. Daggett, housekeeper; Michael Malley, "my faithful man of all work," $300; Rosa Grime, cook, $200. These are made on condition that the beneficiaries are in the employ of the testator at the time of his death. The residue is to be divided equally between the testator's sister, Marion A. Frye of Providence, and his brothers, Samuel W. Hathaway and Clarence M. Hathaway, and to their heirs in right of representation.

A BALLAD OF BUTTERMILK.

[Harriet Whitney Durbin, in Woman's Home Companion.]

It's fashionable, now, to churn
And drink the foaming buttermilk—
A dainty little crank to turn
'Mid wavelets delicate as silk;
The beverage of creamy snow,
'Tis said, will keep grim age at bay;
But—where, I'd somehow like to know,
Where is the churn of grandma's day?

That churn was not of fancy art;
The dame of style would scorn it, now;
And working it would quickly start
A crystal beading to the brow;
But when, with golden specks replete,
Up-splashed the cool, delicious spray,
What modern drink could be as sweet—
Where is the churn of grandma's day?

Within those frothing waves were blent
A thousand flavors, fresh and fine—
The elder-flowers' floating scent,
The clover-meadows' nifty wine,
The perfume of a summer night,
The richness of a sunny May,
The tang of herbage, crisp and light—
Where is the churn of grandma's day?

Madames, who think you've found at last
A fountain of undying youth,
Where is the vigor of the past
That kept the spirit young in sooth—
The simple life and wholesome fare
That held the worry-lines at bay,
The exercise and pure, fresh air—
Where is the churn of grandma's day?

FANCIES.

The impression that men will never fly like birds seems to be erroneous.—[Lippincott's.

She—How can you tell if a painting is genuine?

The other—By whether it rubs off.

He—Well, I am a fool—in fact, I'm sure I'm a fool.

She—That makes it unanimous.

He—And is it my declaration of love that surprised you so much?

She—No; it's your nerve.—[Lippincott's.

"Did the prisoner go beyond well-defined ethical bounds in his defense?"

"Nop; he just went to jail."—[Baltimore American.

"Was it cold in your house yesterday?"

"Cold! Why we had to put quinine in the stove to keep it from shaking apart."—[Life.

"There goes a man who has been in hundreds of revolutions."

"You don't say!"

"Yes. He used to work on a Ferris wheel."—[Birmingham Age-Herald.

"Great Scott! You're not going to try to put a garden in this little yard, are you?"

"Why yes, with folding flowerbeds or something like that."—[Life.

"Sometimes," said Uncle Eben, "a man kin build up a mo' valuable credit by keepin' his promises dan he kin by holdin' on to his money."—[Washington Star.

Rooster—That Miss Pullet seems awfully stuck up.

"That tenor sings like an angel."

"Yes," replied the manager, "But if he ever gets admitted to where the angels are, he'll have to keep singing so as to keep St. Peter from getting acquainted with his disposition."—[Washington Star.

Bogus Cloth.

What is Paint? Some people think anything labelled "paint" is paint, but there's a difference, just as much as between one kind of cloth and another. Cloth nine-tenths cotton and one-tenth wool, is bogus cloth. Cloth all wool wears to the limit. Paint at a price between 75 Cents and $1.50 is like bogus cloth. The L. & M. Paint is all wool and wears to the limit. There's a reason.

COMFORTING WORDS.

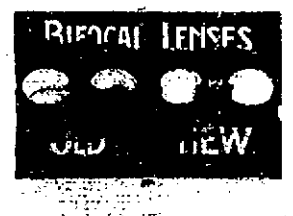

Many a Newport Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Newport readers.

Mrs. B. Exley, 13 Hyat St., Providence, R. I., says: "I allowed my name to be used in the newspapers a few years ago endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills after this remedy had cured me of kidney complaint. I have had no recurrence of my former trouble and consequently, think just as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills as ever. I know that they live up to representations and I am certain that all kidney sufferers will profit by their use."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THE FIGHT AGAINST THE MOTHS.

Much emphasis has been placed by those who are directly interested in the work of exterminating the moths which damage trees and vegetation upon the assertion that the state will suffer greatly by the inability of the department of agriculture to continue to fight these insects the present year, because of the veto by the governor of the appropriation made by the legislature for that purpose, but many believe the damage which will be done by the omission of that work has been greatly exaggerated. Ever since this process of destruction was begun upon the moths there have been some who were sceptical of the wisdom of appropriating sums every year for this purpose, believing that the money was to a considerable extent wasted, and that little result was shown from year to year, and that no headway was being made against the pests was virtually acknowledged by requests every new year for the same amount. The majority of the people, however, are not so strong in their lack of faith in the treatment and believe that it is well worth while to fight the moths.

In the present situation, however, when there is no money to make this fight, and it may be too late to be of much use if money is appropriated at a special session provided one is held, there is an opportunity to see how much loss is sustained by the cessation of the work for a while, and those who are sceptical concerning the value of the plan and the wisdom of using the money for that purpose welcome the chance to determine the conditions accurately. On the other hand, those who believe in the fight against the moths will find in this condition the opportunity to prove their contention if it is correct that the fight ought to be made and money used with considerable freedom for this purpose. While they do not welcome the situation they may find it to their advantage ultimately in settling this mild controversy and establishing the facts so that their requests for appropriations in the future may not be questioned by any.

FAILURE OF EMPLOYES' COMPENSATION LAWS.

It is to be regretted that the legislature failed to give favorable attention to the group of bills introduced quite early in the session providing for the remuneration of workmen in factories and on railroads for injuries received while in the employ of the corporations operating plants where accidents occur. The present law for the compensation of employes in this state is inadequate and unjust. The old idea concerning accidents was that the risk must be borne by the employe and not by the employer, but the new attitude is that the risk belongs to the latter and should be counted among those which he assumes as a legitimate part of his business. The old conception still persists in this state so far as the law is concerned and to a considerable extent also among employers themselves, while the new attitude is being gradually taken by employers all over the country and in many different parts of the world and is being crystallized into law in many countries and many states of this country.

It would have been creditable to Rhode Island if at the recent session of the legislature that body had shown sufficient progressiveness to pass these bills pertaining to the compensation of employes for injuries received by accidents while in the discharge of their regular duties. These measures were conservative and would have been only an entering wedge, as it were, for more pronounced legislation later. Still, they would have been a beginning and would have shown that the people of this state were awaking to the spirit of the times and trying to fall into line to some extent in the matter of justice toward employes. The legislators, however, had other business in which they were more interested than in these bills and they were allowed to die in committee, where so many excellent measures received their quietus during the winter. The legislative graveyard this year was particularly well filled with what would have been useful additions to the laws of the state if they had not been smothered almost before they were born.

CHATEAUGUAY.

It appears from London despatches that 98 years ago the United States of America was defeated by the Canadians at Chateauguay and the loyal citizens of the Dominion have been arranging to display a representation of this epoch-making battle in the coronation pageant. For a while there was a little feeling that it might wound American susceptibilities and some thought of cutting it out, but the pageant committee has decided to disregard the feelings of Americans, although they are paying big money for windows along the route of the pageant, and let Canada do its stunt of licking the United States.

We are not going to get mad about it. We confess that we have made several efforts to extend the blessings of American liberty to the Dominion without success. In the early days of the Revolution we used up two small armies in the effort to emancipate Canada from British thraldom, but Canada refused to be emancipated. We admit also that, although there was Lundy's Lane and New Orleans and Sackett's Harbor, we are not overproud on the whole of our exploits on land during the second war with Great Britain.

We have practically forgotten all about Chateauguay. If the Canadians say they whipped us there we presume it was so, but the name is not familiar to us. We do not seem to recall anything about that encounter, which is described as Canada's most important contribution to the Empire. We can remember being beaten at Bunker Hill, Long Island, Fort Washington and the Brandywine and Germantown, but somehow we cannot remember that thrashing we had at Chateauguay.

If the Canadians set great store by it we are glad they are going to be allowed to do the trick in the pageant. We won't be angry about it. We're not sore about that defeat which the Canadians inflicted upon us. The wounds have healed so thoroughly that we can't find the scar. The representation of the battle of Chateauguay will not spoil the pageant for the American spectators.

The leaders in the House of Representatives have been so affected by the hot wave of last week that they think the weather bureau ought to be investigated. To this end a committee, consisting of three farmers, three lawyers and a school teacher, has been appointed and is now studying meterology, preparing for its task. Farmers may know something about the weather, but what can the lawyers be supposed to do in the investigation? The committee is expected to ascertain why Professor Moore, the head of the bureau, is not always accurate in his weather forecasts; why he does not distribute rain more evenly over the United States, why he permits frosts after the buds of the fruit trees have swollen, and specially why it has been so hot in Washington for the special session.

The coronation is not to be the money maker which the English merchants expected. The price for seats from which to witness the parade and other public ceremonies have been put so high that there is little demand. Instead of an anticipated abnormal rush on the steamship lines, the trans-Atlantic traffic up to the present has not exceed that of the average season and in continental Europe there is no indication of an increase of travel to England. It is beginning to dawn on the Londoners, perhaps too late, that those who may have wished to see the ceremonies refuse to pay outrageously for the privilege.

It is really too bad for the comptroller of the state of New Jersey to hold up the governor's salary for the past four weeks, even if he has not been in the state house during that time. Governor Wilson has advanced ideas on the theory of government about which he desires to speak to the people of the country, and he may be a candidate for the Presidency and wishes to become better known. Possibly he ought to be allowed to go off on a speaking tour and receive his salary just the same as if he was performing the duties of governor of New Jersey.

The sentence of one member of the firm of Duveen Brothers, the international art dealers, to pay a fine of $15,000 in addition to the $1,200,000 which the firm has already re-paid to the government for under-valuations of imports, shows that the government intends to punish such offenses, even if the unpaid duties are turned over to the authorities. The judge who tried the case erred on the right side, if he erred at all, in refusing to imperil the health of the aged defendant by a jail sentence.

It is hoped that the refusal of President Taft to yield to pressure and pardon C. W. Morse and John R. Walsh, who are serving sentences in federal prisons for serious wrong-doing, will give the country and the newspapers a rest. If men doing such things are not punished, it is hardly worth while to take much notice of smaller fry.

The dull weather of the present week has kept back the flowers, so that they will probably be in good condition for Memorial day. A few days of bright, warm weather would have advanced them, especially the lilacs, so that they would have passed their prime. They can now be available for decorating the cemeteries next week.

The Massachusetts Institute of Technology has received assurances since Sunday of gifts aggregating $2,500,000, and there are two more days of the week yet to come.

HELP MAKE COLORADO LAWS.

Hardest Workers in the State Assembly Are Its Four Women Representatives.

[Rheta Childe Dorr in Hampton's.]

Of the present women members of the Colorado state assembly, Mrs. Alma Lafferty is filling her second term. She is a member of the Denver Woman's Club, is highly educated, and manifestly intelligent. Her reputation as a public speaker is so high that she was selected to nominate for United States Senator the Democratic machine candidate, Robert E. Speer. She is a member of half a dozen important committees, including the committee on appropriations. Mrs. Louise U. Jones, also a stand-pat Democrat, is a well known business woman of Denver. By her own efforts she has amassed a fortune, and outside her political activities has shown ability of no mean order.

Mrs. Louise Kerwin, the third of the Democratic women representatives, is more interested in certain social reforms than in general party politics. Her first bill related to important reforms in the practice of medicine in Colorado. Another measure provided for a legal definition of the head of a family. It made the wife or unmarried daughter such a head in case the principal financial support came from the women. Mrs. Kerwin and her colleagues have in preparation a most advanced and important measure regulating marriage, and making unlawful the union of diseased, epileptic, consumptive, imbecile, or feeble-minded persons.

The fourth of the women representatives, Mrs. Agnes L. Riddle, is a Republican, but no Republican machine is responsible for her appearance on the floor of the assembly. The farmers of three counties—Adams, Arapahoe and Elbert—united in electing Mrs. Riddle. She is a farmer and the wife of a farmer. Some of these farmers and their wives call themselves Democrats, but when Mrs. Riddle is to be voted for, whether she nomination is for secretary of the state grange, superintendent of her Sunday School, or chairman of a meeting, almost everybody in her part of the state gets out and votes for her.

Agnes L. Riddle comes near being an institution. Born about 40 years ago of plain German parents, Mrs. Riddle began early to earn her living as a nurse in Kansas City. Her district work brought her in contact with poverty and suffering, and gave her an inspiration to help others which has lasted all her life. When she married and moved to a ranch in Colorado, she by no means lost her desire to do community service. She organized rural churches and Sunday Schools, became a member and an officer of the grange, and was so active in behalf of the state agricultural college that the governor appointed her a member of the advisory board of the institution. Mrs. Riddle has no more than a common school education, but she knows perhaps better than the university trained experts in charge of the college, the needs of the farmers and their children. She has no children of her own, but she has adopted six, three of whom are grown.

No man in the Colorado legislature does as much work as this plain country woman. She rises before dawn every morning, takes care of a large dairy, cooks and serves breakfast, and gets three children off to school. She drives several miles to the railroad station and reaches the assembly chamber before the speaker calls it to order. All day she sits at her desk, capably busy in behalf of her constituents. At the close of the session she attends several committee meetings, and gets back to the farm in time to see supper on the table. In the evening she darns stockings and talks politics with her husband and neighbors.

CHURCH ADVERTISING PAYS.

Another church has been added to those in Montclair, N. J., that believe in advertising to promote attendance. The latest to use the columns of the newspapers to boom itself is the Cedar Avenue Church. It is of the Presbyterian denomination and one of the smallest in the town. The congregation, through its trustees, uses a 10-inch triple-column advertisement to attract attention to its services. The advertisement is illustrated with cuts of the church and the manse. Rev. Thomas Morgan is the pastor. The congregation has arranged to build a new and larger church, and expects that newspaper advertising will aid in increasing its membership. Unity Church recently caused a stir by advertising in the Sunday papers, using large space and large display type. The First Congregational Church also uses display advertisements in the newspapers to announce its special services and speakers.

The trustees of one of the churches that have gone in for display advertising in the newspapers say the increase in the plate collections at the Sunday services alone exceeds the cost of advertising, and a number of new members have been enrolled through the same medium.

"Say, Ma, does God see everything we do?"

"Yes, my child."

"Even the little things around the house, Ma—in the hall and dining-room and all around?"

AROUND RHODE ISLAND.

Work of Dredging Fox Point Slip to Begin at Once—Two Burmese Student Boys.

The state of Rhode Island became owner Wednesday of about 170,000 square feet of property for the site of a state wharf, to be built under the direction of the State Harbor Improvement Commission, in Pawtucket. William D. Bullock of Providence, superintendent in charge of the bridge department of the city engineer's office, has been appointed chief engineer for the State Harbor Improvement Commission. Deeds connected with the purchase of the Pawtucket property were passed at the State House. Mayor Fletcher and Samuel M. Conant, two of the three members of the state commission, with the attorney general and representatives of a title guarantee company, transacted the business. The title of the property is guaranteed to the state. The property purchased is known as the Meinut property and has about 700 feet of water front on the east shore. The price paid for it was $20,000. The deed is signed by James McLoughlin as former owner.

The New Haven railroad Wednesday granted a release, exempting the city of Providence from any damage which might result from the dredging of the New England Navigation Company slip at Fox Point to a depth of 25 feet, for the purpose of permitting the entrance of the Fabre Line steamships to that port without danger of the vessels grounding in the mud, as was the case on the first visit. The dredging will be begun at once, now that the release has been obtained, as soon as passed upon by the city solicitor, to whom was submitted the document which included a clause providing said dredging is done in a reasonably careful manner," and the work of removing the mud will be pushed through in about two weeks, it is expected.

Two Burmese boys, 12 and 11 years of age, who are to enter Hebron Academy ex Hebron, Maine, this fall, are guests of Dr. Theodore C. Hascall of Riverside, and are attracting much attention. They are the sons of Dr. San C. Po of Hasseln, Burma, and are well educated, speaking English fluently. Dr. Po, the father, studied medicine in this country and graduated from the Albany Medical College with high honors. He is a Christian and a friend of the missionaries to that country. Rev. W. H. S. Hascall, father of Dr. Hascall of Riverside, has spent many years as a missionary in the fields at Burma, and became close friends with Dr. Po. The parents of the boys, decided to send the youngsters to the United States to study, being firm believers of the school system of this country. A week ago the boys landed, alone, at Boston, and spent several days at the iconic production of "The World in Boston." They later came to Dr. Hascall's home in Riverside, where they will remain until the opening of the school in the fall.

Rev. John E. Henry has assumed his duties as assistant in St. John's Roman Catholic parish, Providence, where he succeeds Rev. Father William Nagle, recently assigned to St. Michael's parish in Georgiaville to take the place left vacant by the death of Father C. A. Little. Father Henry is a native of Woonsocket and well known in that city. He was graduated from the Woonsocket High School in 1895 and continued his study at Mount St. Mary's College at Emmitsburg, Md., graduating in 1905. Then he went to St. Mary's Seminary at Baltimore, where he finished his theological course in June, 1910. He was ordained to the priesthood at St. Peter and Paul's Cathedral in Providence October 1 of last year, and since then has been pursuing post-graduate studies at the Catholic University of America at Washington. Father Henry is a son of Mrs. Elizabeth Olwell Henry of Providence and the late John Joseph Henry.

Captain E. Merle Bixby and Lieutenant Charles W. Spratt of Troop C, cavalry, and Captain Ralph S. Hamilton, Jr., Senior First Lieutenant; Everitt S. Chaffee, first lieutenant; Rush Sturges and Second Lieutenant Donald Barnes of Battery A., field artillery, Rhode Island National Guard, have been detailed for tour of duty at Fort Riley, Ks., and have left for the West. The Rhode Island officers will be away for a period of 15 days and will undergo thorough instruction in military tactics.

JUDGE COLT'S NEW ASSOCIATE.

William Schofield to Succeed Lowell on First Circuit Bench of United States.

President Taft has announced the appointment of William Schofield of Massachusetts to be judge of the First Circuit court of the United States, the circuit which comprises all the New England states except Connecticut and Vermont. Judge Schofield, now a member of the Massachusetts state superior court bench, is named to succeed Judge Francis C. Lowell, whose death occurred March 6. Judge Schofield, who is a Republican, will be associated in the United States First Circuit court with Judge Le-Baron B. Colt of Rhode Island, who was appointed in 1884, and William L. Putnam of Maine, who took his place on the circuit bench in 1892. Judge Lowell was appointed in 1905.

William Schofield has secured marked prominence as a legislator and judge and has written a number of articles on legal subjects. He was born in Dudley, Mass., February 14, 1857, fitted for college at Nichols Academy, Dudley, and graduated from Harvard in 1879, afterward devoting a year to special studies and receiving a degree from the Harvard Law School in 1883.

Judge Schofield was admitted to the Suffolk bar in 1884, while serving as private secretary to Justice Gray of the Supreme Court at Washington, and began the practice of law in Boston in 1885. He was instructor in torts at Harvard Law School from 1888 to 1889 and from 1890 to 1892 was instructor in Roman law in Harvard College. He was elected to the legislature from Malden in 1899 and served three years in the house. In December, 1902, he was appointed to the superior bench by Governor Crane.

"CONTRABAND" AS USED BY GENERAL BUTLER.

May 22, 1861 General Butler assumed command at Fort Monroe, where 4,000 or 5,000 troops had been concentrated. An energetic man, he began to remind the neighboring Confederates that the stage of passive defense was going by. More celebrated, however, than any of his military movements up to that time was his epigrammatic achievement in giving a new significance to "contraband." Considering that slaves were used by the Confederates to build fortifications, he held those escaping into the Federal lines to be "contraband of war," and refused to return them. The appropriateness of his refusal and the epigrammatic ingenuity of his order tickled the patriotic fancy of the North. Henceforward the escaping slave was a "contraband," and the "intelligent contraband" who brought in military misinformation took the place the "intelligent observer" had held in the earlier stage of the war.

AN UNQUESTIONABLE SUCCESS.

Work of Chorus, Soloists and Accompanist All Excellent.

Spohr's "Last Judgment" Given With Fine Effect Before a Pleased Audience.

A fine audience filled the First Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening to listen to Spohr's "Last Judgment," throughout it was a noticeably pleasant occasion, and this latest chorus to present music of the great composers in Newport must be declared to have reached a high degree of excellence, from whatever standpoint the critic may render his verdict.

Doubtless the singers were carefully selected, and their work was gratifying to witness. There was a quality which is, alas, all too rare in choruses, but which is of greatest value if music is to be presented as music. It may be a little difficult to define it, but it showed itself in intelligent, self-forgetful and enthusiastic devotion to the work, in the perfect sympathy of every singer with the conductor and in a wide-awake readiness for every attack before its arrival. All were evidently confident and self possessed and at least seemed so) and there was ample power, excellent balance of parts, good quality of tone(no noise), and fine, spirited, attack. Much precision characterized the whole performance, the baton was an important factor, and another gratifying feature of the whole evening was the distinctness with which the words were pronounced. It was hardly necessary to have the program to follow clearly what was being sung.

Mr. Baxter, already well known as a leader of unusual ability, but not before seen as a conductor, is surely to be congratulated on the unquestionable success of the fine and beautiful work of the chorus. So is every member of it, for each one heartily contributed to the success. Adverse criticism seems to find very little opportunity in this matter. Possibly, with a greater number of rehearsals a little more in the way of shading might have been attempted; but the wonder is that so complete a production was reached in so short a time. The women singers were at their best while and it may be added that the chorus was a pleasure to the eyes as well as a delight to the ears of the audience.

The work of the soloists was markedly successful. Mrs. Rooney maintained her high standard, and Dr. Lauder did likewise. One of the best parts of the oratorio was their duet "Forsake me not. Thou art my hope, O Lord." Mrs. Sarah Bailey King also did beautiful work in short solo parts. Messrs. Daniel U. Boone and Harry W. Scoville, who divided the bass solo work, were in good voice and sang well. The quartet also was an unusually good one. It consisted of Mrs. Victor Baxter, Mrs. King, Dr. Lauder and Mr. Edward B. Lawton. One of the most beautiful numbers was by the quartet and chorus—"Blessed are the departed who in the Lord are sleeping."

Mr. H. Wood Thompson, organist of the church, was the accompanist for all the numbers, except some which were sung without accompaniment, and did good work. He exceeded many organists, in that he neither "drowned out" the singers, nor played in advance of the soloists, nor dragged behind.

A good deal of the time the tones were strictly of the organ quality, without much of variety or contrast. Towards the latter part there was more in the line of solo stops, and some special effects calling up ideas of disembodied spirits swirling through empty space in cavernous depths. There were several long organ numbers in the score. These served to give breathing spaces to the singers and were a welcome part of the oratorio. Possibly a minute's more pause between the different numbers throughout the evening would not have lessened the good effect of the whole.

Very properly, the audience, while thoroughly interested, following closely and greatly enjoying every moment of the music, refrained from applause. After the last number, however, some-body began to clap and there was a ready response from the other hearers. Then all sat quietly a moment before rising to go.

The following were the members of the chorus:

Sopranos—Miss Mariquita Anthony, Miss Alice Banning, Mrs. Victor Baxter, Miss Hortense Boynton, Mrs. E. S. Carroll, Mrs. Seth DeBlois, Miss Gertrude Haas, Miss Martha McLyman, Miss Grace Morris, Miss Elaine Meikle, Miss Isabelle O'Sullivan, Mrs. Thomas Rose, Miss Hazel Ward.

Altos—Miss Florence Allen, Mrs. Bessie E. Bailey, Miss Agnes Bateman, Mrs. Lawrence Godbold, Mrs. Frank Hale, Mrs. Sarah Bailey-King, Miss Beulah A. Knowles, Miss Ella Maitland, Miss Jessie Martin, Miss Maude Shirley.

Tenors—Joseph Durfee, Nelson R. Hood, Ernest Durfee, Frederick Edgell, J. S. Kahler, Henry L. Martland, Joseph Pearson, Samuel Williams, A. C. Young.

Bass—John R. Austin, M. W. Bassett, G. H. Bloom, C. A. Bloom, Henry Kelly, Colonel King, Frank J. Lutz, E. S. Lawton, Leon Smith, R. W. Smith.

JAMESTOWN.

[From the correspondence of The News.]

Messrs. Corbit and Gilbert Lovering of Philadelphia are on the island, superintending the furnishing of their cottages on the west shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker, who have been guests of the former's sister, Miss Bateman at her cottage on Shoreby Hill, left for their home in Chicago.

The executors of the estate of Susan B. Schoonover have sold to Maria B. Kinsey of Philadelphia, the land with cottage on the Dumplings, belonging to the estate.

The condition of Mrs. Ellen Cottrell remains practically the same, neither the attending physician nor the watcher at her bedside noting any improvement.

C. H. Weeden has rented his north cottage on Walcott avenue to Mrs. Frank G. Weeden of Springfield for the season of 1911. Mrs. Weeden has been in winter in Europe, returning recently.

Miss J. H. Higgins has sold to Oscar Lawton a lot of land with cottage, being lot 18 on the Howland plat.

THE ALL-WATER ROUTE TO NEW YORK.

Miller having been re-modeled and refitted with accommodations for 500 passengers, steamers Massachusetts and Bunker Hill, which are to maintain the Inshore schedule to New York from Boston, will be placed on the all-water route next month. The first sailing from Boston will be June 20. The steamers will be run as the Maine Steamship Company's Boston line and will occupy the same terminals in New York as the Harvard and Yale last year.

THOUGHT TO BE UNFAIR.

Carded Woolen Manufacturers Against Specific Duty on Wool.

BOSTON, May 25.—The directors of the Carded Woolen Manufacturers' Association of the United States, which has its headquarters in this city, today issued an appeal to all United States and members of the House of Representatives against a specific duty on wool. The appeal in part follows:

"The recent press despatches from Washington state that the ways and means committee have agreed upon a specific duty of five cents a pound on wool. We wish to say that any specific duty on wool will continue the present inequalities under schedule K. From 20 to 75 per cent of the weight of raw wool consists of grease and dirt. This grease and dirt and the variation in the value of the wool itself make any specific duty unfair. The only fair duty on wool is a duty based on value."

Edward Meir of Marcellus, N. Y., is president of the association, Gordon Dobson of Pittsfield, Maine, first vice president, and Arthur Wheelock of Uxbridge, secretary.

SYSTEMATIC SEARCH BEGUN.

Murderer of Elsie Seigel of New York Said to be in Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Information received by Chief of Police McWeeney that Leon Ling, the alleged murderer of Elsie Seigel in New York, about two years ago, was hiding in Chicago, caused a systematic search to be started last night of all the Chinese laundries in the city. The information upon which the chief acted came from B. B. Louden, a Chinese mission worker at Muskogee, Okla. Louden wrote the chief that one of his "Chinese boys," who formerly lived in Chicago, told him that Ling conducted a laundry at West North avenue and Halsted street. A detective with a Chinese interpreter went to the address given by Louden but no Chinaman answering Ling's description was found there. Several other laundries were visited last night and the search will be continued until every Chinese establishment in the city has been examined.

WITNESSES SUMMONED.

Everything Apparently Ready for the Littlefield Trial for Murder.

The trial of Frank Littlefield of Block Island, charged with the murder of his mother, is to begin Friday morning in the district court, according to present indications and advices from authentic sources. Clerk Kelley of the district court, however, could not say officially today that there would be such a trial, as the matter merely stands continued on the docket.

The lawyers in the case and Attorney General W. B. Greenough have been quietly at work in an effort to bring about a speedy trial, but that matters had been brought to a head did not become known until instructions were received by Deputy Sheriff Frank DeBlois from the attorney general's office to summon witnesses. In view of the statements which have been made in and out of court circles, that a trial would never be reached, the news was received here with genuine surprise.

With the arrival of steamer New Shoreham this afternoon 25 or 30 witnesses are expected, among these being some of Block Island's most prominent citizens. In order to accommodate them at the court house the senate chamber will be brought into use.

Littlefield came over from the island Wednesday evening, alone.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—E. W. Corliss and A. M. Chace are registered at the Casino.

—Miss Pauline Bostel of Cleveland is here to visit her brother, Mr. Karl Bostel, for the summer.

—Mr. August Belmont arrived here today in his private car Mineola, attached to the 9 o'clock train.

—One of the steam rollers is at work on Touro street, and the curb and gutters on Mill street are being re-laid.

—Mr. Irving Twomey, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Twomey, is ill with pneumonia at his home on Sherman street.

—The Providence line has painted its poles in this city and the usual tests by pedestrians to see if the paint is still fresh are again on.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Schmidt of Washington are guests of Mr. Schmidt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Schmidt, on Dresser street.

—A good clean-up was ordered for the Thames Street pavement this morning, and then it came out dry and the slipping of Wednesday was a thing of the past.

—Considerable work has been done at the Training Station this spring in the way of laying out flowerbeds for the approach to the administration building and the War College.

—Mr. John Carley, on the reportorial staff of the Newport Herald for the past year, has accepted a similar position with the Taunton Herald-News and will leave for that city Saturday.

—Mr. Edward J. Toomey, engineer at Pinniger & Manchester's, was hit in the head by a coal bucket this morning and sustained a cut which sent him to a doctor's office to have it dressed.

—Vehicles were noted this noon standing headed the wrong way. One was an automobile and a policeman stood right by the auto. It cannot now be said that the ordinance has not been published, as it appeared in The News Monday.

—News was received here Wednesday night of the death, at his home in New Bedford, of Mr. Charles Reilly, after a long and painful illness. Mr. Reilly leaves three daughters, one being Mrs. Charles H. Kavanagh of this city, and the others Misses Margaret and Agnes Reilly.

—The basin below the causeway at the Training Station is being dredged and the Reina Mercedes has been moved from her berth to permit the water there to be deepened. The ship herself has been prepared for a trip to New York, where she is to receive attention on the dry dock. It being more than three years since she was hauled out last, she is quite foul and in need of attention.

—One of H. L. Marsh & Co.'s big teams was in a runaway this morning. Perhaps it should be called a run-in, for it was toward the stable where the feed is. As the team passed the Basin a kid named McManus jumped into the rear of the wagon to take the reins and stop the horses. Though he was small he had grit and knew what to do, but the reins were not on the seat. The proximity of the stable finally ended the run.

—Rear Admiral Raymond P. Rodgers, commanding the Naval Station, Narragansett bay, this morning made a visit to French cruiser D'Estrees and was received with the honors, including a salute due his rank. Later Commander George W. Williams of the Torpedo Station visited the cruiser. Rear Admiral Rodgers returned this morning from attending a meeting of the general navy board at Washington.

MRS. JOSIAH P. COOKE'S WILL.

O. W. Huntington to Receive Life Income of $20,000 and Share in Residuary Estate.

Harvard University and Radcliffe College were generously remembered by Mrs. Mary Huntington Cooke, one of the founders of the latter institution, in her will filed at the probate court in East Cambridge, Mass., Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Cooke, who died at her residence in Cambridge last Sunday, was for many years a member of the Radcliffe corporation and many charitable organizations of that city.

The testatrix bequeaths outright $5,000 to Radcliffe, for a scholarship to be known as the "Josiah Parsons Cooke scholarship"; $5,000 to the Cambridge Hospital for a free bed for the women's ward, to be known as the "Elisha Huntington free bed," in memory of her father, Dr. Elisha Huntington, late of Lowell; $2,000 to the Episcopal City Mission; $2,000 to the Avon Home, Cambridge; $2,000 to the Home for Aged Couples, Cambridge, in memory of her mother, Hannah Hinckley Huntington; $500 to Mrs. Edward A. Walker, to be added to the "Ethel Child Walker" prize fund of the art school of Yale College, and her collection of foreign philosophical works, including Schiller and Goethe, together with her mahogany bookcases to Radcliffe College.

The bulk of the property belonging to her estate or over which she had power of appointment, including an undivided half-interest in the properties at 137-139 Summer street, 32 Broad street, and any other property in Boston held by her, together with $50,000 is left in trust with Francis C. Huntington of New York city and William G. Thompson of Newton, trustees. The two latter are also named as executors of the will. This trust fund is to be divided into two parts, both to terminate as trust funds one year after the death of all the issue of her father who were in being at the death of her husband, Dr. Josiah Parsons Cooke, and the present wives of her two nephews, Oliver W. Huntington and Herbert Huntington.

The income from the first part of this trust fund, that is from Boston real estate, is directed to go to her brother, the Rev. William Reed Huntington of New York city, during his life time, and after his death to other heirs. The income from the $50,000 is to be divided into two parts, one-half to go to her brother James F. Huntington and the other half to her cousin Sarah Louise Huntington, during their lives, and then to other heirs, until termination of the trust.

At the termination of this trust three quarters of the fund itself is to go to the president and fellows of Harvard College for the purpose of establishing two permanent trust funds in memory of her husband's father, Josiah Parsons Cooke.

Mrs. Cooke also leaves in trust the sum of $20,000, the income to go to her nephew, Oliver W. Huntington of this city, during his lifetime, and at his death to his wife, Elsie Huntington. At the death or marriage of the latter, it provided that $5,000 of the principal be given to Radcliffe College, to be added to the gift already mentioned; $5,000 to the Cambridge Hospital, to be added to the other bequest already mentioned, and the remaining $10,000 to be added to the trust fund of the Boston real estate.

After making several private bequests, approximately amounting to $75,000, she leaves the residue of the estate to her neice, Alice H. Pew, and nephew, Oliver W. Huntington.

A QUIET FISH DAY.

Things are quiet in the fish business today. The men were supposed to bring in only ground fish for shipment, pounding the seup. Only two boats had been in up to a late hour, the H. E. Hamlin and the Hattie. The latter had a barrel of mackerel, and one was a "whale," weighing 6½ pounds and measuring 20 inches in length. Cliff Talkman took the big one, to show in his shop window. The Hattie landed about six barrels of seup, which will probably not go to New York, the market there being supplied by earlier shipments.

SUNSHINE FOLLOWED BY THUNDER AND RAIN.

There were reports today of a hail storm at Woonsocket and a thunder storm at Providence which made the change which came over things Newport just before 1:30 seem natural. Before that it had been a pleasant day, with the temperature mounting and giving promise of a return to summer-like weather. The wind was southeast. About 1:25 it began to darken in the northwest and by 1:40 the thunder was rolling amid a darkness which promised great things. The wind shifted to southwest and then to northwest, and it grew cooler as well as darker. Then it rained a trifle and some thought the storm had passed, but at 2:10 it began to rain again and the thunder showed that it had not entirely passed by.

It tried to rain some Wednesday afternoon, and did supply some Arctic-feeling weather, but today is different.

All the gardeners and farmers agree with the Water Works men in saying that rain is needed.

LIKE A DELUGE.

Northern Part of the State Has Heavy Rainfall.

PROVIDENCE, May 25.—Northern Rhode Island was deluged by one of the heaviest rainstorms of the year, accompanied by thunder and lightning, this afternoon. The lightning struck a house in Phenix, tearing off the waterspout and some shingles. In about two hours this afternoon the precipitation was .80 of an inch. The rain came down in torrents, flooding streets and drenching pedestrians caught in the sudden and heavy squalls.

RED MEN IN SESSION.

Great Council Hears Reports, Including Statistics of Membership and Finances.

Steamer Pontiac arrived from Providence shortly before 11 o'clock this morning with about 100 members of the Great Council of Rhode Island, Improved Order of Red Men, on board. The trains brought others and all went direct to the wigwam of Weenat Shassit Tribe, where they are today holding their twenty-fourth annual session.

First in order before the opening of the session for business, was the retirement of the committee on credentials, which upon its return reported 22 past sachems in waiting for introduction into the Great Council. These were duly admitted and given seats. Great Sachem Roberts made his annual report, which contained a number of recommendations, and these were referred to a committee which reported them favorably.

The annual report of the great keeper of records showed the following statistics of the order in the state:

Membership—January 1, 1910, 2,186; adopted, 137; re-instated, 1; admitted by card, 24; total, 2,347; suspended, 103; withdrawn, 0; deceased, 29; membership January 1, 1911, 2,119, showing a net loss of 66. The whole number of tribes in the state is 18, with 19 past great sachems and 348 past sachems in the jurisdictions. There were 3 rejections during the year.

The financial statement shows the following figures: Total receipts, $18,630.59; paid for relief, $7,301.69; for burial of the dead, $2,743.63; for other purposes, $9,990.73. The amount of money invested by the tribes aggregates $12,520.08, and the amounts in the various wampum belts is $21,556.31, making the total worth of the tribes $34,376.39.

The following statistics were also presented of the Degree of Pocahontas:

Membership—January 1, 1910, 208; adopted, 62; re-instated, 0; admitted by card, 2; total, 273; suspended, 19; withdrawn, 12; deceased, 1, the total membership January 1, 1911, being 246, a gain of 38. There are 47 past chiefs in the degree, the membership being divided between 168 sisters and 78 brothers. The number of councils in this degree is 4.

The financial statement shows the following: Receipts, $647.85; paid for relief, $30; for other purposes, $572.47. There is $1,000 invested by the councils and $406.67 in the wampum belts, making the total worth of the councils $1,496.67.

The keeper of wampum then made his report in detail of the disbursement of funds.

Reports of the various standing committees were disposed of according to custom, those containing matter for future consideration being referred to the afternoon session.

Great Representative Roberts made his report on the last session of the national body and explained the meaning of some of the proposed changes.

Past Great Sachem Scott of Weenat Shassit Tribe extended an invitation to the members of the council to attend the tribe powwow in Masonic Hall this evening and announced that the tribe and the Degree of Pocahontas would serve supper to the visitors in the hall below. The invitation was accepted.

At 1 o'clock a recess of an hour was taken, the members going as they might elect, the Great Council this year making no arrangement for a general dining place, as is customary.

THE STONE BRIDGE INVESTIGATION.

[Providence Journal.]

Before money is appropriated for extensive repairs on the Stone Bridge at Tiverton there should be a thorough investigation by a disinterested engineer who has had experience in foundation work exposed to the action of the tide. Two or three thousand dollars should be enough to secure the information needed. The public will be well pleased if the investigation is not left wholly to the men identified with the various troubles at the bridge. While in charge of the commission the bridge was considered safe; but soon after the retirement of this commission the bridge was reported to be unsafe for trolley cars. A strictly unbiased inquiry is desired by the taxpayers, and the officials in charge of the bridge should be the first to ask for it. The governor's veto of a $25,000 appropriation was proper, and another appropriation should not be approved unless there is conclusive evidence that the new bridge is actually in danger of breaking down under ordinary loads.

WELCOME TO NEWPORT.

ness of his own, but gave credit to his Christian mother and to God.

He had come from the most lowly, having been born a slave in the family of General Robert Toombs (his uncle), who lived in Georgia, one of the strongest lawyers and statesmen that state ever had. There were 11 children in the Gaines family. Of the seven brothers the bishop is the only one who survives. Incidentally he referred to the tender affection between himself and Mrs. Gaines, they having been married 48 years. His advice to young men was to seek some good woman for a partner. His associates in the Conference he advised to be honest, be upright, be pure.

The singing by the choir furnished a pleasing variation throughout the evening. Rev. W. H. Thomas, who assisted the bishop as chairman of the evening, announced that preparations had been made to serve refreshments to all in the adjoining room.

The Conference opened at 10 o'clock this morning, with devotional exercises in charge of Rev. W. H. Burrell, presiding elder of the Boston district. Among the additional distinguished clergymen in the audience were Rev. A. L. Murray, presiding elder of the New Jersey district; Rev. R. C. Rawson, pastor of the Bethel Church, New York; Rev. A. R. Cooper, presiding elder of the New York district, and Rev. R. R. Wright, Jr., editor of the Southern Christian Recorder.

Announcement was made of the acceptance into the Conference, on trial, of Robert J. Robinson of this city. Mr. Robinson will leave in the fall to pursue the regular theological course at Wilberforce University.

The next important item of business was the election of delegates to the General Conference at Kansas City, Mo., next year, which resulted in the choice of Rev. William H. Thomas of this city and Rev. C. P. Cole of New Bedford. Rev. Dr. Thomas was given an unusually handsome majority, receiving 33 out of a possible 48 votes, notwithstanding the fact that there were eight candidates in the field. His nearest competitor received 20 votes. Dr. Thomas and Dr. Cole in turn expressed their thanks and appreciation for the honor conferred upon them.

Rev. C. H. Yearwood of New Haven and Rev. I. J. Jacobs of Cambridge were elected alternates.

Rev. W. H. Thomas, after the uncommon compliment paid him in his election, was besieged with congratulations from all sides. When it was time for him to respond he was able to say but little, merely thanking his colleagues for the honor and asking for their prayers.

OLD LANDMARKS DESTROYED.

Fire at George's Hotel at Thomaston, Me., Kept from the State Prison.

THOMASTON, Maine, May 25.—Convicts in the state prison were given a scare early today by a fire less than 100 yards away, which totally destroyed George's Hotel and the attached stables. Warden F. Wiggin tendered the services of the prison steamer to aid the town fire department and the damage was confined to the hotel property, which is owned by Captain Lucius Keene of Rockland. A shower of sparks fell close to the prison wall. Only the recent heavy rain prevented a spread of the fire. The fire started in some unexplained manner in the kitchen. The inmates, of whom there were 10 or 12, were not aroused until the fire was well under way but all succeeded in escaping, though scantily clad. The hotel was one of the landmarks of the town, having been built nearly 100 years ago. The property was valued at $10,000; partially insured.

TO HAVE RIGHT OF FRANCHISE.

Women of Chicago Episcopal Churches to be Allowed to Vote.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Women hereafter will have the right of franchise in the Episcopalian churches of the city. During the annual convention of the diocese of Chicago, in the Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul yesterday, the constitution and canons of the diocese were amended to give women members the right of voting on church matters, and in the election of officers of the vestry. Parishioners qualified to vote for wardens, vestrymen, and upon all questions coming before the congregation at any annual or special meetings heretofore have been limited to "all male communicants of full age."

ADJOURNS SINE DIE.

Pennsylvania Legislature Does Not Ratify Income Tax Amendment.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 25.—The Pennsylvania legislature adjourned sine die today without ratifying the proposed income tax amendment to the federal constitution. The house adopted the amendment after it had been in committee about two months, and it was sent to the senate a few weeks ago and referred to a committee. This committee never reported the amendment out.

NEW YORK MAN LOSES CASE.

De Mello of Mattapoisett Awarded Verdict for Death of Daughter.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., May 25.—The case in which John F. Archbold of New York was sued by William De Mello of Mattapoisett for damages for the death of his daughter, Guilherme, ended in the superior court when the jury brought in a verdict of $6,100 for the plaintiff. It allowed $5,000 on account of the child's death and $1,100 for conscious suffering. The jury reached the verdict after being out six and a quarter hours. The child was run down by the automobile owned and operated by Mr. Archbold.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—The police report this morning was minus.

—Dr. Amos T. French has returned from New York.

—Dr. Marcus F. Wheatland has gone to New York for a few days.

—Cashier Thomas B. Congdon is at the Aquidneck National bank today; having sufficiently recovered from his illness.

—Mr. and Mrs. Newton Adams are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Corlies Adams (Miss Rand), who were married recently in New York.

—Today being Ascension day, flowers were placed by the altar committee of Trinity Church on the grave of Rev. Henry Morgan Stone in Trinity churchyard.

—Mr. Henry Walters's steam yacht Narada left New London Wednesday for Norfolk, Va., where Mr. Walters will join her. The yacht will go into commission Saturday.

—Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt sailed today on the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria and will go to Budapest to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Count and Countess Laszlo Szechenyi.

—The automobile driver who had no license or number was not held Wednesday, as it appeared that he was right in his statement that he had applied for both and they had not been received. It was not his fault that no was without them.

—A monument has been erected in the Old cemetery to the memory of Midshipman Sherman B. Nason, who was drowned near Annapolis June 23, 1910. The stone was given by his associates at the Naval Academy in the class of 1911.

—The Second division of the United States Atlantic fleet, composed of the Louisiana, flagship of Rear Admiral Badger; Kansas, New Hampshire and South Carolina, arrived Wednesday at the fishing village of Gilleleje, 40 miles from Copenhagen, the Danish capital.

—Mr. William J. Carr of this city has passed an examination before the state board of registration and examination in optometry for practice in this state. Mr. Carr was formerly in the employ of J. W. Blaine as watchmaker, and has been studying optometry in Boston since the first of January.

—The Chief Petty Officers' Club entertained Wednesday night at the club rooms the chief petty officers of French ship D'Estrees. Things seem to have been very agreeable to all judging by the cheers given at the Government Landing at 10 o'clock, when the visitors took their boat for the ship.

—Torpedo Boat destroyer Arumen has been placed in commission at the navy yard, Philadelphia, and the Mayrant has been ordered placed in commission at the same yard as soon as practicable after delivery by the contractors. This will leave only two, the Monaghan and Patterson, of the 14 destroyers of this class, not yet in commission.

—The work of preparing steamers New Hampshire and Maine for the opening of the New Bedford line is about completed at the repair shops. Each boat has 10 additional staterooms for passengers and a few for the officers and will be found more complete than ever when the line opens as it will June 1 and 2.

—The gang engaged in preparing for the new granolithic sidewalks began work on Carroll avenue, from Harrison avenue to Thames street, Wednesday. The work was started first on that section of Bath road which every one has agreed should have been done years ago. It will be continued as fast as possible, until completed.

—The Curtis Exhibition Company is anxious to give an exhibition of its hydro-aeroplane in this locality this summer and is writing the "Board of Trade" for such assistance as it requires in making the arrangements. Newport has no board of trade or other active organization to promote an interest in such an attraction, which would draw large numbers of people to the city.

LIKELY TO GAIN STATEHOOD.

New Mexico and Arizona Will Probably be Admitted to Union.

Objectionable Features of the Two Constitutions Will be Voted on Separately.

[Washington correspondence of The News.]

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Whatever shape the legislation relating to New Mexico and Arizona may take, it is believed that it will result in the admission of both those states. No doubt both territories will fall in line with any suggestion which seems likely to gain statehood.

The features of the two constitutions that are objectionable to the Democrats in case of New Mexico and the Republicans in case of Arizona will be submitted separately to the people of those territories, and beyond question they will eliminate them from the constitutions. When the constitutions were voted upon as a whole the people had no choice but to accept them or endanger the admission. By rejection the features complained of speedy admission will follow, and there is no doubt that the changes will be accepted and two new states added to the Union.

Speaker Clark has often claimed that his district contained the "best agricultural region in the world." Congressman Booher of the same state says that "six counties in my district compose the best agricultural region in the world." Senator Bailey asserted at the tariff hearings that a certain section of Texas was the "best agricultural region in the world." The returns are not all in, but it is expected that other states have the same "best agricultural region in the world." It would be interesting to have them all grouped and tabulated.

In every one of the rooms of the House office building is a spigot marked "Ice Water." Time was when that spigot connected with a plant which turned out ice water, but the weary traveler about the office building at the present time finds the faucet gives forth water so warm that it is sickening. He is told that there is no longer ice water in the tank connecting with that spigot since the Democrats came into power.

As a matter of economy the supply of ice water was cut off. In place of this cold water in every room there is placed in each corridor one water cooler, and thirsty members and their clerks now go out in the hall when they want a cool drink.

The average orator when he "soars the eagle" generally gets off something in regard to the "glorious old flag," the "stars and stripes" or something that means our present flag. But it remained for Congressman Gudger of North Carolina to put in his speech a high flown compliment to the "stars and bars," which is a pet name for the flag of the Confederacy. The "stars and bars" are always a prominent feature of every Confederate reunion.

"I am asking for information," said John Sharp Williams, plaintively to a man who was talking to the finance committee. "I do not know much about anything," continued the Mississippi Senator sarcastically, "and since these hearings I know less than I ever did."

Congressman Slayden of Texas is chairman of the committee on library, and a part of his duty is to pass upon art works and pictures, including the statues which have been scattered about Washington without much regard to real art work.

"As long as I am chairman of this committee," remarked Slayden one day, "there will be no more obscurities under epaulets erected in the public places in this city. There are more alleged soldiers standing about than enough." He did not specify just whom he meant. Then a member of his committee remarked that the careering horse of Andrew Jackson in front of the White House had every other statue in the capital distanced as a monstrosity.

"We can't disturb 'Old Hickory,'" said the Texan. And he is right. The last time it was tried it raised a mighty rumpus in Congress.

"Many of my friends on the Democratic side called me 'Judge,' but I do not know why," remarked Congressman Booher of Missouri. He might have said that every other man was called "Judge" on the Democratic side.

"I was never a judge in my life," continued Booher, "except judge of a horse race. And I was a mighty good judge of a horse race. I have no doubt that a man who is a good judge of a horse race would make a good judge of a court." When the laugh subsided he went on with his argument.

TRACT ACQUIRED IN 1877 SOLD.

Hetty Green Receives $1,000,000 for Unimproved Land in New York.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Mrs. Hetty Green of New York has sold 480 acres of unimproved land in the southwestern part of this city for approximately $1,000,000. She acquired the tract under foreclosure in 1877 for $196,000. Mrs. Green has large real estate holdings in various parts of the city and it is said her son, Edward H. R. Green, who is now here, will dispose of all the unproductive property.

WINS TARGET PENNANT.

Michigan's Fine Showing in Battle Practice Unequalled in the United States Navy.

With a final merit never before equalled in the United States navy, battleship Michigan has won the battle practice pennant for the year 1911. Her final merit was 93.929, coming within an ace of a perfect score. Day firing, night firing, torpedo practice and spotting were all counted in making up the vessel's remarkable record. The battle practice was held last month off the Virginia capes.

The Michigan's 12-inch literally tore to pieces the target screen, 30 feet high by 60 feet long from a distance of 10,000 yards. Credit for the vessel's fine showing goes to Captain Usher, Lieutenant Andrew C. Pickens, ordnance officer, and Lieutenants J. H. Towers, Bruce Canaga and W. S. McClintic, spotters.

This year the first four ships in battle practice are all "big gun" ships. They are the Michigan, with a final merit of 93.929; North Dakota, 72.948; South Dakota, 70.956, and Maryland, 64.033.

Following is the standing of the other vessels: Fifth, the Virginia, 59.709; sixth Vermont, 59.617; seventh, California, 53.349; eighth, Pennsylvania, 50.34; ninth, Connecticut, 47.497; tenth, West Virginia, 39.036; eleventh, Idaho, 34.801; twelfth, Rhode Island, 24.371; thirteenth, Louisiana, 23.503; fourteenth, Kansas, 21.824; fifteenth, South Carolina, 21.389; sixteenth, Mississippi, 21.244; seventeenth, Georgia, 21.221; eighteenth, Minnesota, 18.995; nineteenth, Nebraska, 18.167; twentieth, New Hampshire, 14.380.

UNDER-VALUED IMPORTS.

Henry J. Duveen Fined $15,000 for Defrauding the Government.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Henry J. Duveen of the firm of Duveen Brothers, international art dealers, was fined $15,000, the maximum fine, in the United States circuit court today. He pleaded guilty yesterday to under-valuations of imports, and his firm has already paid $1,200,000 to the government in settlement of further civil suits. Sentence on Benjamin J. Duveen, who also pleaded guilty yesterday, was deferred.

The district attorney urged a jail term. "These men," he said, "are not casual criminals, but educated men who have been systematically defrauding the government."

Judge Martin said he had considered all the evidence carefully and the negligence of customs officers who had allowed frauds to go on under their noses for years could not be left out of the case.

"This man," said the judge, pointing to the defendant, "is over 60 years old and suffering from a disease which a term of imprisonment must most seriously affect. Out of all charity he should not be cruelly punished for what the government officials in the neglect of their duty have permitted him to do. Even a good man will cheat when he finds that every one else is cheating without interference."

Induced Dr. Howard Co. to Make Special Prices.

After a great deal of effort and correspondence Hall & Lyon Co., the popular druggists, have succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles that Hall & Lyon Co. are willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

Headaches, coated tongue, dizziness, gas on stomach, specks before the eyes, constipation, and all forms of liver and stomach trouble are soon cured by this scientific medicine.

So great is the demand for this specific that Hall & Lyon Co. have been able to secure only a limited supply, and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon them at once, or send 25 cents, and get sixty doses of the best medicine ever made, on this special half price offer with their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

Among the speakers were Thomas Hudburn White of Philadelphia, Professor Paul D. Reinsch of the University of Wisconsin, Senator Raoul Dandurand of Montreal, John W. Foster, former secretary of state, William Dudley Foulke of Indiana, Sir William Mullock, chief justice of Ontario, Governor A. O. Eberhart of Minnesota and Dr. James L. Tryon, of Boston.

A TRIPLE SHOOTING AFFAIR.

"Tony" Von Phuhl, a St. Louis Aviator, Killed in Denver.

DENVER, May 25.—S. L. "Tony" Von Phul of St. Louis, who was shot three times by F. Harold Henwood at the Brown Palace Hotel last night, following a quarrel, died at St. Luke's Hospital shortly before noon today. A charge of murder will be placed against Henwood, who is in jail.

He said that he and Von Phuhl met only yesterday. Friends of both men state that the quarrel started over a Denver society woman.

Von Phuhl has been endeavoring to arrange for a balloon flight across the Rockies. He holds a number of balloon records, including the speed record for long flights, having made the distance from St. Louis to Charleston, S. C., 690 miles in 15 hours.

A NOTED AERONAUT.

Von Phul One of Youngest St. Louis Men Interested in Aeroplanes.

ST. LOUIS, May 25.—Sylvester Louis Von Phul is 33 years old, and a son of Frederick Von Phul of St. Louis. Von Phul, one of the youngest local men to take an interest in aeronautics, made his first ascentsion here in 1908. A year later he qualified for a balloon pilot's license. He has made about 50 ascensions, the most notable in which he participated being the centennial race, a year ago, and the inter-national race last fall.

NEW DREADNOUGHT LAUNCHED.

The Wyoming Christened by Former Chief Justice Knight's Daughter.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—In the presence of the governor and a delegation of visitors from the state for which it was named, Miss Dorothy Eunice Knight, daughter of Former Chief Justice Jesse Knight of Wyoming, christened battleship Wyoming, the nation's latest Dreadnought, when the warship was launched today at the yard of the Cramp Shipbuilding and Engine Co. in this city. Governor J. M. Carey of Wyoming and several officials of the state, together with Secretary Meyer of the Navy Department, and other naval officials, were among those on the launching stand when the big ship slid into the waters of the Delaware river.

The warship will not be surpassed by any fighting ship in the world. The length over all is 560 feet; breath at the water line 93 feet; displacement 26,000 tons. The speed will be 20½ knots an hour. The coal capacity will be 2,500 tons and the ship will carry oil burners in case of emergency. The Wyoming's armament will be twelve 12-inch guns, twenty-one 5-inch guns; four three pounders, saluting guns, two one-pound automatic guns, two 3-inch field pieces, two 30-calibre machine guns and two submerged torpedo tubes. The battleship is a little more than one third completed. It will carry 54 officers and 1,030 enlisted men. The Wyoming is one of six first class battleships under construction at different yards.

BIG GROWTH SINCE 1901.

Population of England and Wales Given as 36,076,269.

LONDON, May 25.—Provisional figures returned by the census officers give the population of England and Wales this year as 36,076,269, compared with 32,527,813 in 1901. While most of the cities and counties show an increase, there are many cases, particularly in Wales, where there has been a decrease.

Greater London's population has increased to 7,252,963 from 6,581,402 in 1901. This increase is entirely in what is known as the outer ring, showing the people are moving from the more crowded centres. In fact, many of the old metropolitan boroughs and the city of London proper have lost their population to the suburbs. The country of London, including the city of London and the boroughs immediately about it, shows a decrease from 4,536,267 in 1901 to 4,522,961 in 1911.

AMHERST MAN WINS.

C. L. Johnston Defeats Oakley of Williams in Four-Set Match.

BOSTON, May 25.—The championship in singles in the New England Inter-Collegiate Tennis Association shifted today from Dartmouth to Amherst, when C. L. Johnston of the latter college defeated J. Oakley of Williams in a hard four-set match. F. H. Harris of Dartmouth, who won in 1909 and 1910, was put out of the tournament Monday. The scores today were 8-6, 5-7, 6-3, 8-6.

VICTORY FOR ENGLISHMEN.

Jesus College Crew Win Race With Ghent Rowing Club.

GHENT, Belgium, May 25.—The eight-oared boat race between the Ghent Rowing Club and Jesus College, Cambridge on the Terneuzen canal today, resulted in a victory for the Englishmen. The distance was one mile, 550 yards. The winner's time was six minutes, 32 seconds, while the Ghent eight covered the distance in six minutes and 35 seconds. Sixty thousand persons witnessed the race in which the Belgian crew was the favorite.

THEIR DEMAND TO BE GRANTED.

Electrical Workers' Strike in Halifax Settled by Compromise Agreement.

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, May 25.—The strike of the electrical workers throughout the city, which began about two weeks ago, was settled by a compromise agreement today. The men demanded 30 cents an hour instead of 25 cents, which they were receiving. Under the agreement, which is for a two-year period, the men will receive 27 cents an hour until July 1; after which they will be paid 30 cents.

HIS ACCOUNTS CORRECT.

Search Begun for Cashier Hamilton of Southbridge National Bank.

SOUTHBRIDGE, Mass., May 25.—A search of Western Massachusetts is being made today for Ernest D. Hamilton, cashier of the Southbridge National Bank, who disappeared from here last Tuesday. Until six weeks ago Hamilton was teller in the Franklin County National Bank at Greenfield. Officials of both institutions say that his accounts are correct and that there will be no investigation. That Hamilton's mind has been affected is the belief of friends who are conducting the search. Three years ago, while he was living in Greenfield, illness from liver trouble affected his mind for a time.

Hamilton had been teller of the Franklin County National Bank for three years until six weeks ago, when he received a promotion to cashier of the local institution. Last Tuesday he left this place supposedly for Greenfield, to make arrangements to move his family here. When he did not appear in Greenfield a search was instituted, but no public announcement of his disappearance was made until today. Hamilton was last seen in Springfield at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

NO TRACE OF HAMILTON.

Cashier of Southbridge National Bank Well Spoken of in Greenfield.

GREENFIELD, Mass., May 25.—When informed of the disappearance of Ernest D. Hamilton, his numerous friends here immediately started a search of the surrounding country. No trace of him had been found during the forenoon. Regarding his illness here three years ago, it was related today that he left the Franklin County Bank one day and it was only when in front of his father's home that he came to himself. He had fallen and received a severe cut on his forehead. He recovered within a short time and continued his duties as teller of the bank.

The search in this vicinity is being conducted today by Judge Field, the chief of police of this place, and many friends. Hamilton is very well spoken of here and the national bank officials are positive in saying that his accounts with the institution are in perfect order.

RE-CONSIDERATION TO BE ASKED.

Two Votes Saves Foss's Veto on Boston Teachers' Pension Bill.

BOSTON, May 25.—A margin of two votes was all that saved the veto of Governor Foss on the Boston teachers' pension bill from being overriden in the house today, the vote being 139 to 71 on the question of passing the bill the governor's objections to the contrary notwithstanding. Re-consideration will be asked tomorrow and those in favor of the measure worked hard today to collect two more votes.

FUNDS FROM TWO SOURCES.

Harvard University Enriched by the Fleming and Shaw Bequests.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 25.—Funds by bequests flowed into the treasury of Harvard University from two sources today, first by the will of Mrs. W. P. Fleming, who was connected with the astronomical observatory for many years, and second from the estate of the late Mrs. Grace R. Shaw of Boston. The greater part of the Fleming estate goes to the university for use of the astronomical observatory, while Mrs. Shaw leaves $36,000 as a fund, the income of which is to enable one or more graduates to visit Europe immediately upon the completion of their studies, in order to complete their education.

The trainman had his arm broken in the accident.

"I fully expected that the President would find that justice would allow him to pardon Mr. Morse."

Protection! Service! Council!

In every bank announcement a feature is made of the security it offers depositors.

This is commonplace and is no more than you have a legitimate right to expect.

Banking is based on security.

Our service extends beyond this element of security. It extends to meeting the depositors on intimate equitable lines, and our advice is at the disposal of our depositors, who are seeking for investment of their funds.

Do not hesitate to call on us in this essential.

This broad policy of co-operation is a new phase in the banking business and marks the first real advance in twentieth century banking.

The invitation to call in and discuss business with us is extended cordially to the ladies.

11—Transactions in United States Steel aggregated 60,000 shares for the first 30 minutes at from 77⅞ to 78⅛. For a short time 1,000 shares was the unit of trading, but when it began to climb upward the tape registered frequent sales of 100 share lots. Professionals took the long side of the market when it became evident that support was effectual and the list mounted with some vigor, active stocks rising half or more above their low prices. Various ordinarily inactive stocks were marked up 1 to 2½.

10—Selling of United States Steel on a very heavy scale, following yesterday's reports of reduction in prices of Steel products, was the feature of the stock market at the opening today. The first sale was a block of 8,000 shares at 78, a decline of ⅜ from yesterday's closing. Within the first ten minutes 42,000 shares of this issue were sold within a range of ¼, with an extreme decline of ⅝. Elsewhere in the list there was evidence of good support, especially in Reading and Union Pacific. Republic Iron and Steel declined ⅜ and the preferred ½.

Noon—Interest in today's stock market was heightened by reason of the unsettled conditions in the steel and iron industry. Yesterday's cut in prices by one of the independent companies was met today by a number of other concerns, including a subsidiary of the United States Steel corporation. From the early course of prices it was plain that Wall Street was in doubt what interpretation to place upon the situation. United States Steel was sold steadily in large lots. Apparent withdrawal of the early support emboldened the bear traders and they widened their operations, driving prices in many instances to below the previous low level. At noon prices were slightly above the lowest and the market was dull. Bonds were easy. Money on call, steady 2½ per cent. Prime mercantile paper 3½ to 4 per cent. Exchanges $306,781,960; balances $3,506,614.

ON A SLIPPERY STREET.

Automobile, Driven Slowly, Skids and Breaks a Show Window in the Sherman Store.

Those who have been watching the condition of the Thames Street pavement were not at all surprised this morning to see that one of the new show windows in Mr. W. B. Sherman's dry goods store had been broken by the skidding of an automobile during the night. It seemed inevitable that some place would suffer, and Mr. Sherman happened to be the victim.

The automobile was in charge of a chauffeur named Schafer who is reported to have been driving at a reasonable speed. This might well be, as those who watched machines on the street Wednesday could certify that it was not necessary to be going at any considerable speed, in order to skid. The trouble is that the pavement has not been in proper condition. Wednesday afternoon, in front of The News office. Mr. Guy Norman gave an involuntary exhibition of the condition of the pavement and its coating of slimy material. If he had not stopped his machine there is no telling what might have happened, but he stopped and finally was able to move along in the direction he wished to go. He had been going very slowly, and perhaps if he had had more speed he would have held his course better; possibly this was the case with the chauffeur.

PORTSMOUTH.

[Regular correspondence of The News.]

In one issue of "The Car" for May 10, "A Journal of Travel by Land, Sea and Air," published in London, is a well written and interesting article entitled "The Panama Canal, A Lady's Motor Trip Through the Isthmus," from the pen of Mrs. Charlotte Cameron of London, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almy of Portsmouth, known in her girlhood days as Miss Lottie Almy, and residing here until a young woman. In the first illustration given with this article she is sitting in Colonel Goethal's motor car, with a woman companion.

The Tuesday Evening Club met at the Social Studio in the afternoon and tied a comforter for one of the members, who in return for the favor furnished a bountiful supply of ice cream. A chafing dish supper was served at 6:45 by the committee, Miss Cora Mitchel and included in the variety of good things "shrimp wiggle." The evening was spent in quiet social enjoyment.

Mr. J. Harrison Peckham left Wednesday for Portsmouth, N. H., where he will be stationed as ordinance draftsman in the navy yard, having been transferred from Washington. He visited the Charlestown navy yard and the Watertown arsenal on the way thither.

Mrs. Lucy M. Phinney visited schools in Newport Tuesday.

Miss Sadie Harrison of the Vaudeuse school was guest Wednesday night of Miss Brophy of the Chase school.

A meeting of the public school teachers was held Wednesday evening at the Social Studio. Mrs. Lucy M. Phinney, president; Miss Minna E. Brophy, vice president; Miss Phebe A. Coggeshall, secretary and treasurer of the Association and the superintendent of schools, Mrs. J. M. Eldredge were present, besides three of the teachers. The leader in Providence Island and Mrs. Lynch and Miss Crowell were absent. Rev. James H. Dennis gave a talk of about an hour's length on "Morality in the Public Schools," interspersing his helpful suggestions with laughable and pathetic anecdotes, forming an agreeable evening's entertainment. Fancy crackers, cake and fruit punch were served.

WELCOMED TO NEWPORT.

Officials, Clergymen and Citizens Extend Warm Greetings to the Conference.

Rev. Dr. Thomas Elected to General Conference by an Unusually Large Vote.

Wednesday afternoon's session of the New England Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church lasted an hour and a half only and was devoted to hearing the annual financial statements from the churches which had not reported in the morning. The usual disciplinary questions were asked and there were brief discussions on different phases of church activities, in which Bishop Gaines was the leader. The condition throughout the Conference was declared to be unusually satisfactory.

The other item of importance in the afternoon was the selection of Allen Chapel, Providence, as the seat of the next Conference, the motion to meet there being presented by Rev. W. H. Jones and favored by the delegates.

The evening session brought out an immense audience, the auditorium, which is equal in size to any church in the city, being filled to overflowing. After prayer and a selection by the choir the secretary read a letter of regret from Mayor Boyle for his inability to be present. Alderman J. P. Mahoney spoke in his stead in behalf of the city. He began by calling attention to the natural beauties of Newport, by reason of which it has become known as one of the world's greatest watering places, and said he hoped the visitors would avail themselves of the opportunity to see the city in all its spring-time splendor. Then he paid a tribute to the negro, who early manifested a desire for knowledge and may now be found in the front rank of every field of honest endeavor. He concluded by again welcoming the visitors in behalf of the city and wishing them a successful and harmonious session.

Postmaster Robert S. Burlingame said he was sorry Mayor Boyle could not be present, for he thought that, with wham has just been said and what the mayor would have said, the visitors would have received a welcome which any organization would be proud to have from a city government. Nothing he could say would add to the spirit of welcome in which the Conference was looked upon by the city government or the citizens at large.

Rev. H. N. Jeter, D. D., in behalf of the Newport churches, praised the African Methodist Episcopal Church as a well organized, influential religious body. He reviewed briefly its history from beginning, speaking of its first Bishop, Richard Allen, a man whom he lauded in glowing terms. Some reasons why he believed this branch of the church had grown to be such a powerful factor for good were, first, its belief in a new birth; second, its belief in the fatherhood of man; third, faith in the holy Bible and the Holy Ghost; fourth, its education of its ministers; fifth, its belief in competent leadership. Dr. Jeter referred to his own long pastorate in this city and the slight chances of his going away from Newport. The bishop added that he would remain here for life if it were in his power to determine the matter.

Rev. W. B. Reed, speaking also in behalf of the sister churches said it was a source of regret to know that Rev. W. H. Thomas was soon to leave. The presence here of the Conference tists, as both denominations are engaged in fighting the battles battles and are and fought to be firmly united on questions affecting them as a race. He hoped that whatever ill impressions the visitors had received of Newport from outside would be disposed after they had seen it.

oySUvflmflibsneall

Dr. M. F. Wheatland, in the name of the citizens, said he wished only to add his testimony to what had been said. The only element of sadness to break in upon the happiness of the occasion was the knowledge that Rev. Dr. Thomas was to go to another church. "Bishop Gaines," the speaker added, facing the chair, "we feel that nothing you have in store will be too good for him."

Mr. Robert J. Robinson in an eloquent speech welcomed the Conference in behalf of the local church. Rev. C. H. Yearwood, chief secretary of the Conference, said no words of welcome were needed. They had felt it at once on their arrival, in a nameless something which speaks louder than words. In the African Methodist Episcopal Church we have today one of the greatest colored organizations in the world. It is demanding and is obtaining recognition on nestions which concern not only the welfare of the race but the weal of the country as well.

Mr. Julius Mitchell said he felt called upon to give a word of praise for the members of the city government who had brought this hearty welcome to the Conference, and cited a particular instance in which the present administration had come out squarely and shown its intention to protect and recognize the colored race. He referred to the refusal to allow the presentation of "The Clansman" in Newport, and at this point Alderman Mahoney received a big round of applause.

Financial Secretary Hurst confined his remarks largely to the progress and development of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and said it was impossible to estimate the credit which belongs to Bishop Gaines in this respect. The bishop was one of the strong men who appeared on the scene of action in its early days, and what he has accomplished is remarkable when the conditions surrounding his people and the attitude of the public then are taken into consideration.

Rev. T. W. Henderson told of his long association with Bishop Gaines and in behalf of the Conference presented him with a purse of gold, saying in so doing: "It comes not from our pockets altogether, but also from our hearts."

The last speaker was Bishop Gaines. He did not make an address, stating that the precarious state of his health would not permit it, but he told a little about his life, his aims and his ambitions. He had never tried to be a popular bishop, but had always tried to have the confidence of his associates. Whatever he had done he claimed nothing through any good-

Colonel Herbert Bliss, adjutant of the parade, was authorized to communicate by telegraph with Rear Admiral Seaton Schroeder, Commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, asking him and his officers of the First division to participate in the exercises of the day. FOR THE FRENCH OFFICERS.

Drill by Apprentice Brigade, Following a Luncheon and Inspection of the Training Station.

Captain Proulhet of French cruiser D'Estrees and anumber of his officers, with Lieutenant de Vaisseau Benoist d'Azy, naval attache at Washington, inspected the Training Station Wednesday afternoon and witnessed a drill by the apprentice seaman brigade. A few from town were also present, some going in carriages and some by trolley.

The foreign visitors arrived at the Station in the early afternoon and were at once taken in charge by Commander Hourigan, who gave a luncheon in their honor.

At 2:45 the brigade, headed by the consolidated Station and apprentice band marched to the parade ground, in command of Mate McKay.

First there was a series of infantry movements, including the street riot drill. Then came the setting-up exercise, without and with arms, and the semaphore drill. There was a march past in review, and then a brigade square was formed, while the band from the centre played the French anthem, the Marseillaise, to which the French officers uncovered. The square then to the right flank marched off the field, the band playing and the boys singing "Nancy Lee."

The formalities were hardly begun when there was a slight sprinkling of rain, while continued during the entire 30 minutes the display was on. The boys were in white, and against the gray beyond presented a beautiful spectacle. Out on the bay were the French cruiser and the submarine parent ships, in their leaden coloring, and now and then a submarine passed. There was no sun to glisten on the water and one could stand and feast his eyes on the pictures pread out before him.

Today the French officers will make a detailed inspection of the commissary department of the Station.

KEPT THE MONEY, BUT RETURNED THE POCKETBOOK.

Last Sunday afternoon some one entered the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Adams on Mill street. The front door was left unlocked by Mr. Adams, who had gone out for a walk. Mrs. Adams and her daughter were in the rear of the upper floor. The articles taken included a Masonic pocketbook containing $5, a gold locket and about $4 in change. Early in the evening the bell rang and upon opening the door the pocketbook, minus the money, was found on the sill.

PLOT OF THE GALAHAD CLUB PLAY.

The plot of the annual play for the benefit of the Galahad Club is as follows: The Sophomores at Brown have arranged for their class dinner, but the toastmaster has been captured by the Freshmen, who conceal him at the house of Henry Reed, a son of a professor in the university. Bill Morgan, a Sophomore and close friend of the toastmaster, decides to disguise himself as a woman and accept the position of cook in the professor's house, in order to rescue the toastmaster. The deception is discovered, the toastmaster rescued, and Cynthia is won by Morgan for his wife.

Rev. Mr. Essex has managed this play in a smaller town and the production will doubtless be successful artistically and financially. The proceeds will be devoted to the Galahad base ball team.

RICHARD CARLE AND "JUMPING JUPITER."

Richard Carle, who has been the strongest element in a score of musical comedy successes, will this for new laughs and continued favor when he presents at the Opera House "Jumping Jupiter," a new musical frolic written by Carle himself in conjunction with Sydney Rosenfeld and reported by Boston, where it has just finished two successful months, as the liveliest of musical comedies. Mr. Carle has the best vehicle in his repertoire since his most successful "A Spring Chicken." In the new play he appears as a dermatologist or "skin doctor," but that phase of his character as Professor Goodwillie is but a fleeting incident in a misadventurous career.

There are new songs, new dances and new effects.

The music of "Jumping Jupiter" is by Karl Hoschna, who wrote "Madame Sherry." He has supplied a dozen numbers running the gamut of comedy songs, love ballads and ensembles, all of which require good voices for their proper rendition. Surrounding Richard Carle is a strong musical comedy cast, including Edna Wallace Hopper, who has been specially engaged for the production; Will H. Philbrick, Ina Claire, Joseph C. Miron, Burrell Barbaretto, Helen Raymond, Lester Crawford, Helen May, John Goldsworthy, Jessie Cardownie, and Isabelle Winlocke.
